MILITARY HEALTHCARE IN A DYNAMIC ENVIRONMENT

16-19 OCTOBER 2025 | THE ADELAIDE CONVENTION CENTRE

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES

INVITATION FROM THE PRESIDENT

On behalf of the Council, I am thrilled to extend a warm welcome to you for the 2025 AMMA Conference in the vibrant city of Adelaide, South Australia.

Our previous conferences have been nothing short of spectacular, with impressive turnouts of over 650 delegates in both 2022 and 2023. These numbers reflect the immense support and enthusiasm from our AMMA community and set the stage for an even more remarkable gathering in Adelaide.

This year's conference will once again provide a dynamic platform for exploring a diverse range of topics in military medicine and emerging fields. We will focus on advancing the next generation of professionals, showcasing cutting-edge technologies, and emphasising the critical importance for military medicine research.

The Council is committed to delivering a comprehensive and engaging program, featuring a rich lineup of scientific and keynote presentations, alongside interactive exhibitor and sponsor activities. We have crafted a selection of tailored sponsorship packages designed to maximise your investment and are eager to discuss how we can customise a package to align with your goals.

We look forward to seeing you from 16-19 October at the Adelaide Convention Centre.

THE AUSTRALASIAN MILITARY MEDICINE ASSOCIATION

The Australian Military Medicine Association was established in May 1991, however, in October 2012 a resolution was approved to rename the Association the Australasian Military Medicine Association. It is an independent, professional scientific organisation of medical and allied health professionals with the objectives of:

Promoting the study of military medicine

Bringing together those with an interest in military medicine

Disseminating knowledge of military medicine

Publishing and distributing a journal in military medicine

Promoting research in military medicine

Membership of the Association is open to doctors, dentists, nurses, pharmacists, paramedics, human factors specialists, psychologists, psychiatrists and anyone with a professional interest in any of the disciplines of military health. The Association is totally independent of the Australian Defence Force, however there are strong connections with the Australian Defence Force Health Services Branch.

The Association reflects and encourages the broad spectrum of health that contributes to the fascinating and vital discipline of military medicine and veterans' health.

Advertising opportunities

The Journal of Military and Veterans' Health is the official journal of the Australasian Military Medicine Association www.amma.asn.au. It is a peer reviewed journal dedicated to supporting the publication of research and information on military medicine and veterans' health, recognising that the impact of military service translates into health effects on military personnel long after they retire. It provides and promotes information for those health professionals who are working in, researching or have an interest in the unique facets of medicine and health of military personnel and veterans.

Various advertising opportunities available for both online and printed magazines.

2023 AMMA SPONSORS & EXHIBITORS

“RAPP Australia was looking for an effective avenue to enter the military medical market and our attendance at AMMA more than delivered. We saw an immediate interest in our offerings which has significantly increased our potential within the military medical sphere. From an organisational standpoint, Leishman took the time to understand what our needs were and supported us every step of the way. We highly recommend attending the AMMA conference and wholeheartedly recommend Leishman.”

Mouhamad Zoghbi - Regional Manager NSW/ACT, RAPP Australia

“The Australian Military Medical Association Conference provides an unmatched regional opportunity to connect with the broader military health community. Learning new and innovative developments, talking with military members who are currently managing a variety of personnel health challenges in the field, and discussing the challenges our forces face in the future. International SOS is a proud participant and contributor to the annual Conference.”

Judy Swann OAM PhD - Head Military Health Services | Pacific, International SOS

“AMMA provides a great opportunity to network with Defence Health professionals and to understand the direction military medicine is heading. To listen to the current issues and challenges, ensures our future work is tailored to overcome these and to deliver the best possible outcomes for Defence.”

James Evans - Leidos Australia

“We have worked closely with Leishman Associates at AMMA over the past few years to promote Aspen Medical’s strong links to the ADF. The team at Leishman Associates understand our goals, find opportunities to make the sponsorship more effective and flexible in how that is delivered.”

Marketing & Communications Director - Aspen Medical

“On behalf of CareFlight, I’d just like to say thank you for you and your team’s support with the recent AMMA event. The feedback I got from the team was that it was the best AMMA event they’ve attended. As a not-for-profit the event is key in our calendar, and allows us to continue to deliver on our mission and social purpose.

We look forward to attending again next year!”
